§ 480.135 Disclosure necessary to perform review responsibilities.

(a) Disclosure to conduct review. The PRO must disclose or arrange for disclosure of information to individuals and institutions within the PRO review system as necessary to fulfill their particular duties and functions under Title XI Part B of the Act.

(b) Disclosure to consultants and subcontractors. The PRO must disclose to consultants or subcontractors the information they need to provide specified services to the PRO.

(c) Disclosure to other PRO and medical review boards. The PRO must disclose—

(1) To another PRO, information on patients and practitioners who are subject to review by the other PRO; and

(2) To medical review boards established under section 1881 of the Act, confidential information on patients, practitioners and institutions receiving or furnishing end stage renal disease services.

§ 480.136 Disclosure to intermediaries and carriers.

(a) Required disclosure. Except as specified in §§ 476.139(a) and 476.140 relating to disclosure of PRO deliberations and quality review study information, a PRO must disclose to intermediaries and carriers PRO information that relates to, or is necessary for, payment of claims for Medicare as follows:

(1) Review determinations and claims forms for health care services, furnished in the manner and form agreed to by the PRO and the intermediary or carrier.

42 CFR Ch. IV (10–1–00 Edition)

(2) Upon request, copies of medical records acquired from practitioners or institutions for review purposes.

(3) PRO information about a particular patient or practitioner if the PRO and the intermediary or carrier (or HCFA if the PRO and the intermediary or carrier cannot agree) determine that the information is necessary for the administration of the Medicare program.

(b) Optional disclosure. The PRO may disclose the information specified in paragraph (a) of this section to intermediaries and carriers without a request.

§ 480.137 Disclosure to Federal and State enforcement agencies responsible for the investigation or identification of fraud or abuse of the Medicare or Medicaid programs.

(a) Required disclosure. Except as specified in §§ 476.139(a) and 476.140 relating to disclosure of PRO deliberations and quality review study information, the PRO must disclose confidential information relevant to an investigation of fraud or abuse of the Medicare or Medicaid programs, including PRO medical necessity determinations and other information that includes patterns of the practice or performance of a practitioner or institution, when a written request is received from a State or Federal enforcement agency responsible for the investigation or identification of fraud or abuse of the Medicare or Medicaid programs that—

(1) Identifies the name and title of the individual initiating the request,

(2) Identifies the physician or institution about which information is requested, and

(3) States affirmatively that the institution or practitioner is currently under investigation for fraud or abuse of the Medicare or Medicaid programs and that the information is needed in furtherance of that investigation.

(b) Optional disclosure. The PRO may provide the information specified in paragraph (a) of this section to Federal or State fraud and abuse enforcement agencies responsible for the investigation or identification of fraud or abuse

§ 480.138 Disclosure for other specified purposes.

(a) General requirements for disclosure. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, the following provisions are required of the PRO.

(1) Disclosure to licensing and certification bodies. (i) A PRO must disclose confidential information upon request, to State or Federal licensing bodies responsible for the professional licensure of a practitioner or a particular institution. Confidential information, including PRO medical necessity determinations that display the practice or performance patterns of that practitioner, must be disclosed by the PRO but only to the extent that it is required by the agency to carry out a function within the jurisdiction of the agency under Federal or State law.

(ii) A PRO may provide the information specified in paragraph (a)(1)(i) of this section to the State or Federal licensing body without request.

(2) Disclosure to State and local public health officials. A PRO must disclose PRO information to State and local public health officials whenever the PRO determines that the disclosure of the information is necessary to protect against a substantial risk to the public health.

(3) Disclosure to the courts. Patient identified records in the possession of a PRO are not subject to subpoena or discovery in a civil action, including an administrative, judicial or arbitration proceeding.

(b) Exceptions. (1) The restriction set forth in paragraph (a)(3) of this section does not apply to HHS, including Inspector General, administrative subpoenas issued in the course of audits and investigations of Department programs, in the course of administrative hearings held under the Social Security Act or to disclosures to the General Accounting Office as necessary to carry out its statutory responsibilities.

(2) A PRO must disclose information regarding PRO deliberations and quality review study information only as specified in §§ 476.139(a) and 476.140.

[50 FR 15359, Apr. 17, 1985; 50 FR 41887, Oct. 16, 1985. Redesignated at 64 FR 66279, Nov. 24, 1999]

§ 480.139 Disclosure of PRO deliberations and decisions.

(a) PRO deliberations. (1) A PRO must not disclose its deliberations except to—

(i) HCFA, at the PRO office or at a subcontracted organization;

(ii) HCFA, to the extent that the deliberations are incorporated in sanction and appeals reports; or

(iii) The Office of the Inspector General, and the General Accounting Office as necessary to carry out statutory responsibilities.

(2) PRO deliberations are not disclosable, either in written form or through oral testimony, in connection with the administrative hearing or review of a beneficiary's claim.

(b) Reasons for PRO decisions. (1) A PRO may disclose to those who have access to PRO information under other provisions of this subpart, the reasons for PRO decisions pertaining to that information provided that the opinions or judgements of a particular individual or practitioner cannot be identified.

(2) A PRO must disclose, if requested in connection with the administrative hearing or review of a beneficiary's claim, the reasons for PRO decisions. The PRO must include the detailed facts, findings and conclusions supporting the PRO's determination. The PRO must insure that the opinions or judgements of a particular individual or practitioner cannot be identified through the materials that are disclosed.

§ 480.140 Disclosure of quality review study information.

(a) A PRO must disclose, onsite, quality review study information with identifiers of patients, practitioners or institutions to—

(1) Representatives of authorized licensure, accreditation or certification agencies as is required by the agencies in carrying out functions which are within the jurisdiction of such agencies under state law; to federal and state
